Re: Letter of Appreciation

Dear Kim,

I am writing this letter to you in an extended effort to personally thank you and your company for providing us with an experience that was above and beyond our expectations.

It was truly a pleasure dealing with a company that obviously prides itself on quality and, above all the delivery of “superior” customer service. From the time that we initiated our original inquiry with you, through to the final delivery of our trade show booth, our expectations were not only met, they were exceeded.

Based on our experience, I would not have any difficulty in recommending Display Co. to anyone that is looking for a quality, customer oriented company to assist them with their display requirements.

Thanks again for making this a pleasant and memorable experience!

Yours truly,
Creative Housing Solutions Canada Inc.
